WAR: NEWEST MILITARY UPGRADES TO ORA CENTRAL

ORA MOBALIZES TROOPS IN PREPORATION FOR...

Infantry amassed outside the Ora City Hall facing St Jerome Emiliani where the King and other members of the government attended a consecration Mass for the Armed Forces

The King of Ora has announced that the Armée de Ville will be mobilizing within Ora in preparation for War with an undisclosed State. The King says he has worked strenuously to attain peace, but due to a number of diplomatic factors it has appeared unattainable. “Me and the government of Ora have been working and hoping for a peaceful resolution of these issues, but unfortunately I have to tell my people that War is unavoidable”. The announcement comes shortly after the Russian Ambassador to Ora was attacked at the French Embassy in the Jungle District. While Ora claimed no responsibility for the attack, and highlighted the fact that the French Ambassador was among the wounded, there are strong suspicions from former parliamentarians that Russia is in fact the “Undisclosed State”. Citizens are warned to stay clear of Military houses and personal in the coming days, and avoid the Civil Quarter of Ora for the coming weeks.
